

Job Announcement:

Americans for Tax Fairness (ATF) is a diverse campaign of national, state, and local organizations united in support of comprehensive, progressive tax reform. Our short-term goal is to end the Bush-era tax breaks for the richest 2 percent and make critical investments that create and sustain jobs while taking a balanced approach to addressing America's fiscal challenges. We are a staff of five, and are looking for one or more Interns to serve through the fall semester, with the possibility to extend through the end of the year. The tax debate is a major issue, both in the upcoming election and in the session of Congress right after the election as the Bush tax cuts are set to expire at the end of the year. Interns would have the opportunity to work on a high profile tax campaign at a critical time.
