EXXONMOBIL, AMERICA’S LARGEST COMPANY, HAS MADE A KILLING FROM RISING WORLD OIL PRICES AND ITS INVESTMENTS IN FRACKING, BUT IT HAS ALSO ENJOYED MASSIVE TAXPAYER SUBSIDIES FROM CORPORATE TAX LOOHOLES.

- ExxonMobil had a three-year federal income tax rate of just 15%, less than half the official 35% corporate income tax rate, according to the company’s filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This low-tax rate gave ExxonMobil a tax subsidy worth $6.2 billion from 2010-2012.

- ExxonMobil had $43 billion in offshore profits at the end of 2012, on which it paid no U.S. taxes.

- When ExxonMobil finally settled legal claims from the Exxon Valdez spill in Alaska, deducting the cost of the settlement reduced the company’s tax bill by half a billion dollars, which other taxpayers paid for.

- ExxonMobil spent $193 million lobbying Congress over the last 15 years. Taxes topped the company’s list of lobbying issues in 2012.
