GE made $88 billion over the last 11 years but used corporate tax loopholes and offshore tax havens (where it has stashed $108 billion) to reduce its federal income tax rate to just 2.4%. GE received a tax subsidy of nearly $29 billion over the 11 years.

- In four of those years, GE reported more than $22 billion in U.S. profits, yet paid no federal income taxes and received $4.8 billion in tax rebates.

- While dodging paying its fair share of federal income taxes, GE pocketed $21.8 billion in taxpayer-funded contracts from Uncle Sam between 2006 and 2012.

- GE’s CEO plays a leading role in coalitions that want to cut corporate taxes, cut Social Security, and raise the retirement age from 67 to 70. His $59 million GE retirement account is enough to provide him with a $336,007 retirement check each month.

- GE has eliminated more than 15,000 American jobs since 2004, while adding 30,000 jobs overseas during that time.
