FIVE-CANDIDATE ANALYSIS SHOWS HISTORIC SHIFT IN TAX & SPENDING DEBATE

Major candidates in Democratic presidential field offer fiscal plans many times the size of Clinton's in 2016

WASHINGTON, D.C.-Five leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination who have announced revenue and investment plans are proposing much more robust plans than Hillary Clinton offered in 2016, showing how far the debate has shifted in the progressive direction in four years. Like Clinton, they would all raise taxes almost exclusively on the wealthy and corporations to improve public services working families rely on like healthcare, education, and infrastructure.

A summary of the tax and investment plans are in the tables below, along with links to the elements and sources of the plans of Senators Warren and Sanders, Pete Buttigieg, Joe Biden and Michael Bloomberg.

Highlights include:

- Revenue plans range from $3.4 trillion over 10 years for Biden, $$ 7.3$ trillion for Buttigieg and $$ 29$ trillion for Warren. Hillary Clinton proposed just $$ 1.4$ trillion in new revenue from the rich and corporations in 2016.
- Investment plans range from $$ 3.2$ trillion over 10 years for Biden to $$ 7.8$ trillion for Buttigieg to $$ 50$ trillion for Sanders. Clinton proposed $$ 1.7$ trillion in new public investments.
- Not counting Medicare for All, Sanders and Warren are each proposing to raise about $10 trillion in new revenue and to spend $$ 22$ trillion and $$ 9.5$ trillion, respectively.

Among the specific tax proposals common to the leading Democratic hopefuls:

- Ending the tax discount enjoyed by certain investment income predominately received by rich people, so that wealth is taxed like work.
- Raising the top tax rates charged on the nation's highest incomes.
- Raising the corporate tax rate from the current $21 \%$ to at least $28 \%$ (Biden and Bloomberg) or to $35 \%$ (Buttigieg, Sanders and Warren). The corporate tax rate was slashed $40 \%$ by the 2017 Trump-GOP tax law.

The revenue and investment plans of the five candidates are below.
